

6th January 2015

Introduction to our new 'Poles Apart' topic.

The children watched a powerpoint about the Arctic and Antarctic. We talked a lot about the main features of these areas. The children loved finding out about the animals, such as polar bears and arctic foxes!

The children then worked in pairs to decide upon what they would like to find out more about during the next few weeks. They used fact books to help them to decide too!