

Monday 19th January 2015

A Frosty Morning walk

The whole class walked to the woods this morning. On the way we crunched through the frosty grass and kept an eye out for icy puddles!

In the woods, the children were encouraged to find leaves and twigs to put into order of size. Children were also encouraged to sort natural objects into groups, such as leaves of the same size or shape.

The children loved exploring the wooded area.