

Monday 20.04.15

The Three Billy Goats Gruff

Children designed their own 'troll' character from the tale. We talked about the troll's character first and thought of exciting adjectives to describe the troll.

Some children drew their troll and wrote sentences/words to describe their troll. Some children chose to paint their troll and told and adult about their character.